Congratulations to all the participants in Fusion of Concert Colors-everyone did such a nice job on their artwork.

Artwork will be hung at the FAME Festival as well as a giant slide show of the artwork at the Celebration of Youth Concert.

A reception for the Fusion participants will take place at University of Saint Francis on May 16, 2-4pm.

Thanks to all of our prestigious judges from Arts United, Fort Wayne Youththeatre, Fort Wayne Civic Theatre, Fort Wayne Trails and Federated Media.

New Artboards!!!

Thanks to the Foellinger Foundation's Limited Asset Grant and the McMillen Foundation we will be showcasing your students artwork on these new artboards designed by the Baldus Company. Here is what you need to know:

Size:
38.5"x8'
these are not as wide as the cardboard boards . The old boards were 4'x8'

Panels:
The artboards are now 5 panels instead of 4

Look:
Made from black indoor/outdoor carpeted material. You may still wish to use art paper to cover the boards just note the size difference.

Velcro:
You can use the Loop side of the Velcro to hang artwork. Pictures can be mounted with no more than a 1" strip in each corner . You may use push pins or t-[pins this year only-we have found that push pins do not work well.)

We can't wait to see the artwork on the new

FAME Visiting Artists

Musical Conexion With Cote & Kelsey

Based in Fort Wayne, the Musical Conexion provides an educational enrichment program inspiring cognitive connections through music cultural immersion, and bilingual learning.

- Experiential cultural learning through dance, songs, finger-plays, games and stories
- Exploration of real instruments such as the acoustic guitar, cajon peruano, and indigenous instruments
