PLANET EARTH 2020-2021

FAMEOUS Notes

Hello Teachers,
I hope this message finds you healthy and safe!

After the Teacher's meeting on Sept 24 a few of us asked some of you, the teachers, what they wanted to see happen this year...what is possible and what is not! We know you are all burdened with extra work and worries and we want to make things as easy as possible for you to participate in FAME and the FAME Festival.

ART TEACHERS: We think it is best to move the Fusion due date to January 13 to give you more time to get the artwork completed. More information about Fusion is below.

ART TEACHERS: Many of you have been asking, "How many art pieces can we submit to the FAME Festival?" The answer is a maximum of 60 pieces. It would be great if you could take a picture of each piece of art you wish to submit, add it to a slide show/Power Point and save as a media file. Make sure your timing transitions are 3 seconds or less. We will be glad to help if needed.

MUSIC TEACHERS: Music people-get creative if you are not able to sing in your classroom—maybe have a bucket drum presentation, or a square dance, or how about recorders? Or? If we go virtual you can submit up to 4 videos, about 3-5 minutes long for each. Make it fun & exciting for the kids!
More information soon about what format to use and how to submit videos to us.

We will have a decision about the FAME Festival very soon regarding virtual or at the Grand Wayne Center.

FAME Visiting Artist

Sayaka Ganz

Reclaimed Creations

Sayaka Ganz was born in Yokohama, Japan and grew up living in Japan, Brazil, and Hong Kong. She received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Indiana University Bloomington and a Master of Fine Arts degree in sculpture from Bowling Green State University. She then taught design and drawing courses at IPFW between 2002 and 2012.

Sayaka has made a video tutorial of a couple fun reclaimed projects to do in the classroom. One is simple for the younger students and one is more detailed.

The link of Sayaka's projects is included in the $25 FAME membership.

FAME Festival

We are excited to about the annual FAME Festival this March. It will more than likely be a virtual festival and you will be able to upload your art and music presentations- but we are still working out logistics and will keep you all informed as the information becomes available.

All performances and artwork are covered in your $25 membership fee

This activity is made possible, in part, with support from Arts United, the Indiana Arts Commission , and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.
